

“Puttin’ on the Writs!”

We the People need to stop sitting on the fence and watching our liberties and freedoms go up in smoke. The U.S. Constitution and the lawful statutes written to uphold it must be upheld. Federal, state, and local officials who yield to special interest groups, foreign governments, and illegal alien sympathizers are in direct violation of their oath of office. Treason runs rampant in our government, and we need to start holding traitors accountable.

According to federal law, if you know public officials are giving aid and comfort to the enemies of the sovereignty of the United States, and do nothing, then you too are committing a crime. Most state and local officials prefer to fall back on that on adage, “It’s not my job,” but in reality, it most certainly is. Federal law makes it a crime to aid and abet illegal aliens.

Federal law makes it a crime to not report those that give aid and comfort to illegal aliens, and requires citizens to report such crimes to the President, a governor of a state, a federal judge, or a state judge.

Is there one governor, one federal judge, or one state judge that has integrity AND a spine?

MISPRISION OF TREASON

“Any person having knowledge of any treasonable project is bound to disclose it to the President, or to a United States judge, or to a Governor of a State or a State judge, or he is guilty of misprision of treason, and may be fined one thousand dollars and imprisoned for seven years.” (page 20, Gard. Inst., 326; 1 U.S. St. L. 112, 119.)

Article 3, Section 3 of the U.S. Constitution states:

“Treason, against the United States, shall consist only in levying War against them, or in adhering to their Enemies, giving them Aid and Comfort. No Person shall be convicted of Treason unless on the Testimony of two Witnesses to the same overt Act, or on Confession in open Court.

The Congress shall have Power to declare the Punishment of Treason, but no Attainder of Treason shall work Corruption of Blood, or Forfeiture except during the life of the person attainted.”

U.S. Attorney General Eric Holder commented recently that the United States was a “nation of cowards.” While we may not agree with his reasoning, he may be correct in his observation. Why else would We the People allow so many traitors to hold public office?

Have we forgotten that we have a Constitution? Over 1.3 million Americans have died defending Old Glory and what it represents over the centuries. Betraying their sacrifice is not the “change we need.” We’ve had enough of that; it’s called treason.

The laws Congress passes MUST adhere to the agreement between the states that actually ‘formed’ the federal government. Every President and Congress this millennium has seemed to think the states are united for the benefit of the federal government. That is totally backwards, immoral, and wrong.

The Preamble to the Constitution states quite plainly that the purpose of the states joining together was to form a more perfect Union, to establish Justice, to insure domestic tranquility, to provide for the common defense, promote the general Welfare, and to secure the Blessings of Liberty for themselves and “us,” their posterity.

The Founding Fathers did not include the Bill of Rights just to fill up the page!

When it comes to liberty and freedom, that old adage “ignorance is bliss” only holds true for the scoundrels usurping your rights. Your ignorance is their bliss.

It has been years since an elected official was charged and convicted of treason. Is that because none of them are guilty? Of course not; it is because the citizens of the several States have forgotten what treason is, and the governors, federal judges, and state judges have failed to do their jobs, and We the People have stopped doing our job of informing them about traitorous activities, and also failed to hold them accountable for failing to uphold their respective oaths of office. It is a vicious apathetic circle. Education is the key.

 Read below what was written by United States Supreme Court Justices and other jurists about what treason is, based on actual cases brought before the highest court in the land. Compare these actual cases to the behavior of the past two administrations, and a Congress that votes away our rights without even reading the bills.

Senate Majority Leader Harry Reid, House Speaker Nancy Pelosi, and other Members of Congress ignore the Constitution on a daily basis, and knowingly give support and comfort to special interest groups, foreign governments and the illegal alien insurgents they encourage to invade the United States, and betray everything their oath of office represents. Ask your governor, your federal and state judges why these traitors aren’t swinging from a rope?

Ask yourself why you keep putting up with it. Read below what Supreme Court Justices and other jurists have said about what entails treason. Compare this behavior to most Members of Congress, and the President. Borrowing more money in the past six months than was borrowed in the past 30 years does not fiscal responsibility or sound judgment make.

TREASON

“Treason, by our Constitution and law, consists in levying war against the United States; by an assemblage of persons for a treasonable object, such as a dissolution of the Union by force or menace; or to compel forcibly a change of administration; or to coerce the repeal of an act of Congress by compulsion; or to compel officers to resign, and thus defeat an act of Congress in its execution, in any State, county, or place, such as a conspiracy by force or menace to destroy the Union, or to overturn any duly elected President and his administration.”

\(Pages 19-20, Gard. Inst. 323, 324, 325, 326, and authorities there cited; Constitution, U. S. Art. 3, Section 3.\)

All persons having knowledge of any such treasonable objects, who shall, in any way or in any degree, whether remote or near the place of assembling, aid in promoting such treasonable designs, are traitors.(lb.) So are all who adhere to the enemies of the Republic, or give them aid and comfort. (lb.) 1 U.S. St. L. 112, 118, 119. – The punishment of treason is death.

OBSTRUCTION OF LAW

Particular acts of resistance to an act of Congress, not having their object the defeat of the general execution of the law, in some given place, is not treason. (Gard. Inst. 332)

CONSPIRACY AGAINST THE UNITED STATES

Conspiracy to commit treason, or to aid in it, by word, deed, printing, writing; by a governor's message; by a speech in Congress, in a legislature, or through the medium of a newspaper or other publication; or by any other mode, whether by private persons or officials, is now a misdemeanor, by act of Congress, passed the 31st day of July, 1861. (U.S. St. L. for 1861, p. 284.) The original act was drawn by the author, and it was meant to reach, and does reach, all and every act, word, deed, printing, writing, or speaking, done, spoken or uttered, to promote the forcible severance of the Union, in any contingency, or defeat it, or impede any power or authority of the United States government. The punishment is a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars, and imprisonment not exceeding six years, both or either. This is a humane law, and is intended to prevent the commission of treason by punishing, as a misdemeanor, the incipient conspiracy to commit treason, and thus render capital punishment unnecessary. Read George Washington's Farewell Address. He warned us about several of the quagmires we are currently engaged in. He warned us what would happen if we failed to adhere to the Constitution.

1. Identify the federal and state judges that serve you.
2. Obey the rule of law and inform these judges of acts of treason and conspiracies to commit treason.
3. Tell them to stop 'putting us on' and to start... *"Puttin' on the Writs!"

The 14th Amendment, Section 3 states quite plainly that Members of Congress, and state government officials who give support to insurrection against the Constitution and our sovereignty can NEVER hold public office again.

We the People need "Writs of Mandate" by honorable judges to order government officials to stop betraying their oaths of office, to stop committing acts of treason, and to stop giving aid and comfort to illegal alien foreign nationals, their special-interest lobbyists, and the usurpers of the Constitution.
